

Before the session the NFTE flag was hoisted by the General Secretary in presence of Com. Balakrishnan Circle President and Com. Hiriyanabh Circle Secretary alongwith all the participants of the CEC. After shouting the slogans all participants entered in the auditorium of BSNL Bangluru BA head quarters.

The President Com. Balakrishnan being satisfied with the attendance of District Secretaries, Circle office bearers and other guests and invitees, he declared the house in quorum. First of all Com. Balakrishnan President moved a condolence resolution before the house and directed all the participants to pay homage to Com. K.S. Sheshadri for Deputy General Secretary on his photo one by one which was initiated by GS and followed by all the present members after that the house maintained two minutes silence to pay the respectful homage to Com. Sheshadri.

Com. Hiriyanabh Circle Secretary placed the notice and explained the agenda points with his key notes as his initial speech.

Open Session:- The open session was well attended with a number of more than hundred workers including a good number of women employees. The session was attended by Smt. Sujatha, CGMT Karnataka Circle as Chief Guest, Shri Deepak Sharma GM (HR & Admn), Shri Toppo PGM (Mobile), Com. Ramesh, Circle Secretary SNEA, Brother Jagdish Circle Secretary and AGS SEWA, Com. G. Babu former Circle Secretary of NFTE, Com. Jai Shankar Circle Secretary AIBSNL BWA and Com. Gangadhar Rao, Former AGS BSNL PWA.

The session was inaugurated by lighting lamp by all the guests including G.S. NFTE. After completion of this event GS delivered his inaugural speech and pointed out the key points of the suffering of BSNL workers specially non-executive employees. He completed his speech within a short period to accommodate and give proper space to all the guests.

Smt. Sujatha, CGMT Karnataka addressed the session in the capacity of the Chief Guest and exhorted all the achievement of Karnataka circle in last financial year she added that the Karnataka Circle is one of the circle which was in profit in last financial year ending on 31-03-2025. She appreciated the role of workers and their contribution which enable the circle to get profit.

Next speaker was Shri Deepak Sharma who appreciated the cordial relation and discipline approach of the NFTE representatives, he assured the gathering that the HR wing of circle office is always careful for the settlement and quick disposal of the grievances of the staff. Com. Ramesh C.S. SNEA, Com. G. Babu former Circle Secretary NFTE, Com. Gangadhar Rao, Former G.S. AIBSNLPWA, Brother Jagdish AGS SEWA also delivered their very inspiring speech and all of them repeatedly told that total unity of the workers is only way to achieve the demand of the workers. Brother Jagdish in his speech appreciated the behavior and great knowledge of our leader Com. K.S. Sheshadri and also appreciated the role of NFTE BSNL in respect of issue of the workers. The open session was ended with a vote of thanks by Com. Balakrishnan President of the Circle.

After lunch break the G.S. again addressed the house and explained the status of all the burning issues of the employees which are long pending. After speech of the G.S. the session was again started and all the District Secretaries and some of the Circle office bearer took part in the debate and shared their views. The Circle Secretary announced that the next Circle Conference of Karnataka Circle will be held at Mysore. The date will fixed with the consultation of G.S. CHQ. The delegate session was ended with a vote of thanks by Com. Hiriyanabh, C.S.

